SEAFOOD LOVERS...

- Want to know more about seafood health benefits/risks?
- Interested in learning more about sustainability issues?
- Interested in sampling different types of fresh seafood?
- Want to learn more about the local seafood industry?

Join Florida Sea Grant and your local University of Florida Extension Service for a....

Naples Seafood Seminar & Sampling Tour

March 10, 2011
9am - 5pm
Starts at North Collier Regional Park: 1500 Livingston Rd, Naples, FL 34119

Participants will start the day with a series of presentations relating to seafood safety and sustainability. Next, participants will be transported to Randy’s Fish Market, a nationally acclaimed restaurant and seafood market, where they will sample a variety of freshly prepared seafood items. Following lunch, participants will visit Captain Kirk’s Stone Crabs Fresh Seafood Market, a historically well-known market in Naples to visit with its owners, 4th generation fishermen to discuss the region’s local fisheries and seafood industry.

Program Cost: $35 (check or cash only)

Covers food and transportation costs

Each participant will also receive a $20 gift certificate to Randy’s Fish Market (for dine-in only, and one certificate per visit)

http://www.randysfishmarketrestaurant.com/

Space is limited! You must REGISTER with Linda Hetrick at (239) 353-4244 or lhetrick@ufl.edu by March 3rd!

The Extension Service is an off-campus branch of the University of Florida and department with the Public Services Division of Collier County Government. Extension programs are open to all persons without regard to race, color, creed, sex, age, handicap, or national origin. In compliance with ADA requirements, participants with special needs can be reasonably accommodated by contacting the Extension Service at least 10 working days prior to the meeting. Contact Extension at (239) 353-4244 or by fax at (239) 353-7127.